Vacation's Over Sept. 12 For 2,500 Children Here

Vacation days will be over for 2,500 Albany students when school doors open this coming Monday morning, Sept. 12. Slight increase in school enrollments are anticipated by school officials, although, final figures must await the arrival of all families to be living in University Village this fall.

Supt. Kenneth M. Forry stressed the record high number of new teachers in the Albany system this year.

Twenty new teachers, the largest group in recent years, will start their teaching assignments this fall. "This large teacher turnover," according to Forry, "indicates the continuing problem that the Albany school district faces in securing and keeping qualified teachers. Our lower salary schedule makes it increasingly difficult to meet the competition of neighboring school districts. We still have unfilled teaching positions at the elementary level."

Among the new staff members at Albany high school is — Carl O. Couch, newly appointed vice-principal. Couch is from San Leandro, where he served as a counselor at Pacific High School and Principal of the San Leandro Summer High School. He is a graduate of Wheaton College, Ill. and has a masters degree from UCLA in counseling. Other new assignments at Albany high school include — William Savage as head counselor and Miss Grace Dinsdale as a counselor.

It is anticipated that the two new high school buildings will be completed by the end of the year, with the possibility that the Industrial Arts building may be used for instruction late this fall. Plans have also been made to continue the remedial reading project under the Elementary Secondary Act, providing that the district application is approved and federal funds ($28,855.00) made available. During the past

Fall Schedule for Albany Pool Begins Sept. 12

The fall swimming instructional classes for children have been announced by Bert Griffin, pool director, who noted the special feature will be a half hour free swim for those in the 5-6:30 classes.

Phone reservations will be accepted for classes, which begin Monday, Sept. 12, and end Thursday, Nov. 17.

Ten half-hour weekly lessons are offered for children who are 40 inches to the chin, Griffin said.

Late classes will be Monday through Thursday, 5 to 5:30 and 6 to 6:30. Early classes are scheduled from 4 to 4:30 to 5.

All children must supply their own bathing suits. Girls must have caps.

The fee for Albany residents is $4 for the series. Non-Albany resident fees are $4.50.

Recreational swimming will also begin Sept. 12. Hours are Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30 and Saturday from 3 to 4:50. Thursday is family night and children or juniors must be accompanied into the pool by an adult, Griffin said.

RODENT SURVEY HERE HAS SIDE BENEFITS

The rodent survey presently underway in Albany by the health department is doing more than merely eliminating rodents, according to deputy health officer Harold Van Coops. Premises are being spruced up in the process when such rodent habitats as dense shrubbery, lumber piles directly on the ground, and piles of trash are eliminated. The Albany Health Department wishes to thank one and all who are cooperating in this program.

So far, the deputy health officer and his assistant, Jerry McClain from the Neighborhood Youth Corps, have surveyed 1679 premises. At the time of inspection one-sixth of the premises which showed need for improvement had openings large enough for rodents to enter the sub-floor space through the ventilator holes, around the house.

A good rule of thumb, according to Van Coops, is that if a hole is large enough to insert 3 fingers a rat can get in; if a little finger can be inserted, a mouse can enter. Quarter-inch mesh screen is recommended for rodent-proofing these openings.

Summer Accelerated Training at Half-Way Mark

The 113 members of the 1966 Summer Accelerated Training (SAT) program at Naval Air Reserve Training Unit, NAS, Alameda, are midway through their day course.

The event was marked, appropriately, with a full dress uniform inspection by Commander S. L. Morris, NARTU Aviation Technical Training Officer, and a stirring "pass in review" by the oriented recruit battalion. The half-way point also marked advancement of each recruit the rating of apprentice airman, based upon successful completion of navy exams. The young men hail from high schools and communities located throughout the Bay Area. The SAT program, which operates during the summer vacation months, affords high school juniors and seniors opportunity of two successive summers of naval training prior to actual entry upon active duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Eaton
(Patricia Ann Whitman)

Pretty rites at St. Ambrose Catholic church Aug. 21 united in marriage Patricia Ann Whitman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitman of 724 Ramona, and Merle Russell Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Eaton of 1265 Portland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk organza fashioned with a sheath skirt applique in re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls and a sweeping chapel train. A cluster of lace leaves edged with seed pearls secured her elbow length veil and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of orchids and sprigs of stephanotis.

Margaret Russell of Albany was maid of honor. Beth Shepherd of Orinda and Cynthia Jorgenson of Terra Linda were bridesmaids. All wore princess style frocks of pink linen with large matching hats of pink tulle. They carried pink daisies and baby roses.

James Krehbiel of Richmond was best man. Douglas and Lawrence Eaton of Albany were ushers.

A reception at the Brazilian Room followed the wedding. The couple are at home in Oakland following a wedding trip to Hawaii.

St. Ambrose Catholic Ladies Aid Whist

On Tuesday, Sept. 13, the Catholic Ladies Aid society of St. Ambrose church will hold a dessert-whist in the parish hall, Gilman and Stannage, Berkeley. Refreshments will be served at noon; cards begin, 1 p.m.

Mrs. Joseph Vila is chairman with Leona Stanley as assistant. Others assisting are Mrs. R. Speer, Mrs. C. Swasey, Mrs. A. Taveira, Mrs. B. Thelen, Mrs. T. Trayhey, Mrs. E. R. Frost, Mrs. A. Vargas, Mrs. F. Walton, C. Vickers, Mrs. G. Woody and M. Wright.

(We agree wholeheartedly with the thoughts expressed in this column by Russel Faust of Cleveland, which appeared this month in a Catholic publication. If you think your police and firemen have soft jobs, please read it. You're bound to change your mind, Ed.)

The tragic death last week of four firemen while fighting an apparently routine industrial blaze on Cleveland's West Side has again underscored the dangers peculiar to members of the public safety department.

Firemen, like their counterparts in the police department, never know what is going to happen next. They never know what emergency is around the corner. They never know whether they will get home to see their family again.

One of the widows of last Thursday's tragedy was quoted as saying that she and her husband never said goodbye when he left home for the station. Each knew the danger and tried in their own way, to live with it and make the best of it.

Charles Doehner, John Petz, Joseph Toolis and Ralph Simon are dead. They have joined the long list of public servants who have given their lives in service. A city is saddened. A whole city offers sympathy to their families.

Newsmen get especially close to firemen and policemen, because their life is where much news is made. And newsmen get a close-up look at these men that the general public can't.

Newsmen don't think of policemen, for instance, as a "cop" who walks a beat, pinching apples from the fruit stand or leisurely riding around in a patrol car or handing out a parking or jaywalking ticket now and then.

We know a policeman, instead, as the father of six who narrowly escaped death in a shoot-out with a dope-crazed robber. Or a quiet guy who was spit on and had his uniform torn at his own expense and had his skull cracked in settling a drunken fight. Or the ambulance driver who worked to exhaustion in an unsuccessful attempt to start a victim's breathing.

I have seen a police wife pull back a white cloth in a hospital ward and identify her husband of nearly 30 years who had been shot to death after stopping a man for a minor traffic offense. I have seen veteran police sergeants shake so violently after duty tours that they could not sign their daily reports.

Some people have the wrong idea about firemen and policemen. They think they are some kind of supermen who get a kick out of putting on uniforms and never know the word fear.

That's a misconception. The firemen and policemen whom I have seen in all kinds of duty are not much different from the rest of us. They have a responsibility that's more apparent, sure. They have a greater sense of civic and community pride. But they get scared often. Only fools never scare.

A brave man is one who does his job despite fear. I have never met a coward in the public safety department.

It takes an uncommon amount of guts to plunge into a burning building and search for people reportedly inside. Or to singe your hair standing against the heat of a lumber yard fire with a hose to save a neighborhood of homes. Or to fight a fire while snipers aim rifles at you.

Years ago it seemed every boy wanted to be a policeman or a fireman. Now departments all over the country have campaigns to get applicants to take civil service tests.

The jobs have lost some of their appeal and glamor. But then they never really had that kind of glamor. Police and fire work is a tough, dirty job that is underrated and usually underpaid.

All of us owe a debt of gratitude to the men in the public safety department. Without them it would be a pretty chaotic life.

It is ironic that in this day when entertainers and sports figures command payments of four or five figures for one day's work, a professional fireman or policeman has to work at a second job to keep his family in food, clothes and decent housing.

Civilization, it has been noted elsewhere, is often a culture of contradictions. None is more glaring than this: We are willing to pay a man handsomely for entertainment but not for dangerously keeping law and order — the most necessary element in our life.

Southern California and Mexico and Las Vegas were the honeymoon destinations for Mr. and Mrs. Alden F. Thorogood, following nuptials at St. Ambrose Catholic church. Father Patrick J. Finnegan performed the afternoon rites.

Louise Fracchia before her marriage, the bride was escorted to the altar by her son, Donald Fracchia of Oakland. Mrs. Robert Beach Walkup of Albany attended her as Matron of Honor and Mrs. Don Thorogood served as bridesmaid. Louise's gown was pale aqua peau de soie, waltz length, fashioned with a belled skirt and bell sleeves. Her chiffon veil, in matching color, was held in place with a flat Dior bow. Long white kid gloves completed her costume. Her cascade bouquet of stephanotis and orchids was entwined with a Brussels lace wedding kerchief, a token gift of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walford Olson, sent from Belgium. She wore a diamond stud heart on a platinum chain, her husband's gift.

The gowns of Mrs. Walkup and Mrs. Thorogood were mint green, fashioned similarly to the bride's. Their veils were held by small

MEDICARE

(A Series)

By Gerald O. Dewhirst
When to Claim Medical Insurance Benefits

You can claim medical insurance benefits as soon as you have expenses for covered services, but no payment can be made until you meet the $50 deductible amount for the year. It would be better to hold your small bills until they amount to more than $50 and just make one claim rather than making several claims for small amounts. There are two different methods of payment — direct to the patient or direct to the doctor.

Under the payment to patient method, after you have met the $50 deductible, you can send in a claim as soon as you have paid all or part of the bill for the covered services. (Since in this case payment would be made directly to you, it could only be made on the basis of payment you have made — beyond the $50 deductible.) No medical insurance benefit can be paid under the payment to patient method unless you have attached a receipted bill with your claim or have the doctor show in the place provided on the form how much of the bill has been paid.

Under the payment to the doctor method, the doctor who provided the services may file the claim immediately without waiting for you to pay your share of the bill. He can then bill you directly for the amount you owe him. Which method of payment is used is a matter strictly between you and your doctor. If the doctor has agreed to your assignment, he agrees that, if the $50 deductible is met, he will accept the amount paid to him by Medicare as covering 80 percent of his bill. He can then bill the patient for the remaining 20 percent of the reasonable charge and any amount of the $50 deductible still owed him.

YOUR BENEFITS FOR DOCTOR BILLS

The benefits to help you pay doctor bills will be your most important protection under the medical insurance program. Benefits may be paid for the medical services you receive from a physician whenever they are furnished — in a hospital, in his office, in your own home, or in a clinic.

The medicare law specifically guarantees each person the right to select his own doctor. Nor does a doctor have to sign up or make any special arrangements in connection with his treatment of medicare beneficiaries. All that is necessary is that he be legally authorized to practice medicine or osteopathy in his State.

KINDS OF PHYSICIANS' SERVICES MEDICAL INSURANCE COVERS

Medical and surgical services by a physician — in a hospital, in his office, at a clinic, or at your home — wherever they are furnished.

Services in connection with your physician's treatment, such as: diagnostic tests, medical supplies, the services of his nurse, drugs which cannot be self administered, and similar services which he would ordinarily include in his bill.

Dental surgery, by a doctor of dentistry or a doctor of dental surgery, but only if it involves major dental surgery and is not just ordinary dental care.

KINDS OF SERVICES MEDICAL INSURANCE DOES NOT COVER

Routine physical check-ups.
Eye examinations for prescribing or fitting eyeglasses.
Hearing examinations for hearing aids.
Routine dental care.
Immunizations.
Services of practitioners such as: chiropractors, naturopaths, chiropractors or podiatrists, optometrists, Christian Science practitioners.

Although the major benefit that you derive from your Medical Insurance plan will be payment of your doctor bills, there are other medical and health services covered by this plan. They will be discussed in the next article (with the exception of the provision for 100 home health visits which has already been covered).

Albany High School Football News

With only a little more than a week of practice left prior to the opener with Marin Catholic, the mood of the Cougars continues to please the coaching staff.
Steve Elsner was heard to say,
"We sure are getting in good shape!" This is the general feeling.
This week the football team will be practicing from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Scrimmages have been scheduled daily with a full scale scrimmage set for Saturday.
As the older football players leave the field today, the newer Cougars, fresh from their physicals of last night, will be trotting onto the field for their first practice at 12 noon. These boys will undergo twice a day sessions, at 12 noon and again at 4:30 as they prepare for their first game
Sept. 29 with Liberty.
The Jay Vees open against Marin Catholic one day before the big cats take on Marins' Varsity.
A complete schedule of all the Albany teams appears below:

Letters

Editor, The Times:

Open letter to Mr. Fred Wyatt:
"Good Grief" is not the word to describe Albany citizens' feelings about annexing to Berkeley.

We had this annex problem a few years back. The answer is still a very firm "no."

We who were reared here, educated here and have raised our families here don't intend to be annexed to Berkeley, El Cerrito or any other city.

We know when we are well off and aim to stay that way.

... Let Berkeley keep her burdens and problems, her University of California and BART subways...

We don't have problems at all, compared to Berkeley. We don't have police problems in our beautiful city of homes. We are proud of our juveniles... Color, nationality or creed have caused no problems in Albany. Our churches, schools and parks are outstanding. We have fine city officials and we all have great civic pride.

No, Mr. Wyatt, we like what we are, have and the way we do it. This is our town and we aim to keep it that way.

I am now in my 60's and I've been an Albany resident since I was three. When I was a youngster, I was paddled by our late and first chief of police, John Glavin-ovich. Five or six of us were skating and holding on to the SP red electric train that ran up Main street. Then we would coast down all the way to San Pablo Ave. John told us the dangers and that it was against the law.
Then, like the old Irish father in the old Irish song, "He Made Us Understand." Patricia Kelly, Albany.

'Law for Layman' Taught By Stanley Kendall

A class entitled Law for the Layman covering Wills and probating estates, including inheritance and estate taxes, and deeds and deeds of trust, the rights of husbands and wives, advantages and disadvantages of joint tenancy property, contracts, and other related legal subjects affecting everyday practical law, is being conducted in the Albany Evening School, 703 Key Route Blvd., in Albany, by Stanley R. Kendall, practicing Berkeley attorney.

The class will meet on Thursday, Sept. 15, starting at 7:30 p.m. and will be for the duration of six to eight consecutive weeks on Thursday evenings.

The class is especially designed to inform the public as to the different types of Wills, the taxes involved upon death, and taxes involving gift transfers of property, along with the statutory costs of probating estates.
